Play:

Qualifying Rounds – 12pm - 5pm

1) Each player starts with $5,000 in tournament chips.
    a. Optional $5 add-on for $3,000 additional chips. ($5 = dealer appreciation)
2) Play will consist of 20 hands of Ultimate Texas Hold'em with a rotating "1st base".
    a. Min Bet: $25
    b. Max Bet: Ante and Blind : $100 Trips Bet: No Max
    c. Players MUST play the Ante/Blind bets. Insufficient funds to back up an Ante Bet bet will result in a folded hand and all wagers will be lost.
    d. At the end of 20 hands all players totals will be documented.
3) Players do not need to win their table. At the end of the final qualifying round, the 18 players with the highest chip counts will move on to the semi-finals at 615pm.
    a. In case of a tie a 3 hand playoff will occur at 6 pm.
        i. In case of more than a 6 person tie there will be a random drawing among those tied to determine who moves on.

Semi-Final Round – 615 pm

1) Same rules apply as in the qualifying round. Except:
    a. Chip counts do not carry over from the previous round and players must now be in the top 2 money totals on their table to move on to the Final Round.
    b. Players will place their bets in order starting from the rotating "1st base" position.
    c. In case of a tie between players at a table there will be an immediate 3 additional hands for those tied players only.
2) At the end of the Semi-Final Round all players will receive $100 for being in the top 18.

Final Round – 715 pm

1) Same rules apply as in the previous rounds. Except:
    a. There is no optional add-on for chips.
2) All ties except 1st place chop the prize money evenly.
        i. 1st place tie requires a 3 hand playoff between the tied players.
3) Prize Payouts: 1st $3100 2nd $2100 3rd $1300 4th $900 5th $500 6th $300
