Shakopee, MN -- Seis the Royal Cash was the upset winner of the $45,050 North Central Quarter Horse Racing Association Futurity Sunday at Canterbury Park. Ismael Suarez Ricardo was aboard the winner for trainer Victor Hanson and owner Brenda Reiswig of Bismarck, ND.

The 2-year-old quarter horse filly won by one-half length in a final time of 18.155 seconds. Sportwagon finished second, Engine Number Nine was third and wagering favorite Pyc First Prize was fourth.

Seis the Royal Cash returned $35.20 to win.

This was the first NCQHRA Futurity win for the owner, trainer and jockey.
