Shakopee, MN -- A She's Adorable, owned by former Wayzata, MN resident Phillip Maas and trained by Michael Stidham, won the $75,000 Lady Canterbury Stakes under jockey James Graham. The 5-year-old mare has now won six of 13 career starts and $263,195.

A She's Adorable raced well back early, but began passing horses on the far turn. At the top of the stretch she was on the lead. From there she was never challenged, going on to win by 5 and 3/4 lengths. "I wasn't worried early," Graham said. "She is such a nice filly. She just dug in and went by." Final time for the one-mile turf race was 1:36 2/5.

As the betting favorite in the 10-horse field, A She's Adorable returned $3.80. Finishing second was Silent Candy and jockey Florent Geroux. Third was Avenue Sister ridden by Dustin Dugas for trainer Mac Robertson.

Robertson won the two undercard stakes races on Fillies Race for Hope day, a fundraising event for Hope Chest for Breast Cancer Foundation, which attracted a crowd of 9,638.

The $50,000 Princess Elaine went to Minnesota bred Sheso Dazzling and jockey Derek Bell. On the turf for the first time in her career, the 4-year-old filly tracked pace setter Satin Edition before taking the lead with an eight of a mile to go. She held on to win one and one-sixteenth mile turf race by one-half length over favorite Tickleyourfancy. Tez Savitri finished third. Sheso Dazzling is owned by Eric Von Seggern and Kurt Kindschuh of Wisner, NE. She paid $7.00 to win.

Bell was also aboard Robertson's Mindy Sue in the six-furlong $35,000 Hoist Her Flag Stakes. He took the 5-year-old mare just off the pace, shifted her to the outside in the stretch and then strode to victory. Mindy Sue is owned by Joseph Novogratz of Excelsior. MN. She returned $4.80.
