Shakopee, MN -- Hype, owned by Al and Bill Ulwelling of Elk River, MN, won the 16th running of the $35,000 Brooks Fields Stakes on Saturday at Canterbury Park. Hype rallied from last to first over a yielding turf course under jockey Eddie Martin, Jr. The 4-year-old Kentucky bred thoroughbred gelding completed the 7 ½ furlongs in 1:35.18 and returned $16.80 to win.

Martin took Hype to the rear of the field in the early stages of the race and began passing runners as he came off the far turn. In deep stretch Hype and Martin split horses and surged to the lead, winning by a half length. "I had a lot of horse," Martin said. "I just cut to the inside and found some running room." Hype is trained by Gary Scherer.

Pursue a Dream, second in last year's Brooks Fields, again finished second. Green Secret was third.

The Brooks Fields Stakes was named for Canterbury's first President and CEO. Brooks Fields presided over the Shakopee track when it opened in 1985.
