Shakopee, Minn. -- Wings Locked Up and jockey Orlando Mojica led from start to finish in the $50,000 Dark Star Cup Saturday at Canterbury Park. The Dark Star Cup was one of four stakes on Canterbury's 10-race program and was Mojica's second stakes win on the day. In the previous race he guided Some Say So to victory, also leading throughout, in the $50,000 Minnesota Turf Distaff.

A P Is Loose, with Dean Butler aboard, won the $50,000 Minnesota Turf Stakes by a neck over Plenty of Sun. The win was the 6-year-old Minnesota-bred's eighth victory at Canterbury and boosted his career earnings to $319,153. A P Is Loose is owned by Joel Zamzow of Duluth, Minn. and is trained by Mac Robertson. He paid $3.20 to win.

Wings Locked Up paid $6.40 as the second wagering choice. The 5-year-old is owned by Sad Sac Racing and is trained by Clinton Stuart. Some Say So, who won by 1 3/4 lengths over First Hunter, is trained by Judd Becker for owners Tim Rosin, Patti Miller, and Mark Kane. Some Say So returned $10.80 to win.

La Mos Pyc, ridden by Stormy Smith, won the $32,750 Gopher State Derby, covering 400 yards in 20.57 seconds. The 3-year-old quarter horse filly is trained by Lori Harris and is owned by Thomas Scheckel. This was the first stakes win for Harris.
