Shakopee, MN -- Canterbury Park Holding Corporation today announced that Robert M. Wolf has resigned as the Company's Chief Financial Officer and Senior Vice President of Finance, effective April 19, 2019, to accept a position at NXC Imaging, a Minneapolis-based distributor of medical solutions. Canterbury Park Chief Executive Officer and President Randy Sampson will serve as Interim CFO until a successor is found.

"Rob has been a valuable and effective leader for Canterbury Park and has made a positive impact," Sampson said. "I wish him the best in his new endeavor as he returns to an industry in which he has much prior experience. I appreciate his contributions to Canterbury."

Wolf was hired as VP of Finance in March 2017 and promoted to Senior VP of Finance and CFO in September of that year.

Canterbury Park Holding Corporation owns and operates Canterbury Park Racetrack & Card Casino in Shakopee, Minn., the only thoroughbred and quarter horse racing facility in the State. The publically-held Company offers live racing from May to September. The Card Casino hosts card games 24 hours a day, seven days a week, dealing both poker and table games. The Company also conducts year-round wagering on simulcast horse racing and hosts a variety of other entertainment and special events at its Shakopee facility. The Company is redeveloping 140 acres of underutilized land surrounding the Racetrack in a project know as Canterbury Commons. The Company is pursuing several mixed-use development opportunities for this land, directly and through joint ventures. For more information about the Company, please visit www.canterburypark.com .
