

Official Rules
Pigskin and Ponies King of the Hill Contest

Contest Summary: Patrons visiting Canterbury Park on Sundays, October 2, 9,16, 23 and 30, 2022 may participate in a contest designed around the official outcome of five designated horse races and five designated professional football games each contest day. There will be no entry fee or admission charge to participate in the contest. To win the contest, the entrant must make correct selections in each of the races or games and be the final entrant remaining as entrants are eliminated for incorrect selections. The weekly prize is $100. See below for complete rules.

Entry deadline is noon central each contest day.

Entrants will select one horse using official program number in each designated horse race. Entrants will select one of the two teams to win in each designated football game. An incorrect selection results in elimination for that contest day.

BONUS: An entrant selecting correctly in all 10 contest races/games will receive $1,000. Should multiple entrants select all 10 races/games correctly the $1,000 bonus will be divided equally. The bonus includes the initial weekly prize money.

Rules:

A total of 10 pro football games or horse races will be selected for each weekly contest.

Entrants must meet the selection criteria for each game/race. An incorrect selection eliminates the entrant from the contest for that day.

Elimination will be determined by the order of the races/games listed on the entry form and NOT by the actual time the results of the race/game become official.

If all entrants are eliminated from play during the first three races/games, the prize money will not be paid that week and will carry over to the following week's contest. Should all entrants be eliminated during the first three games/races on Oct. 30, a drawing for the prize money will be held at 3p.m. and winner must be present and claim prize within five minutes or a subsequent drawing will be held.

Each week the criteria for the 10 races/games will be:

Designated race: Selection must finish in the top three or entrant is eliminated.

Designated race: Selection must finish in the top three or entrant is eliminated.

Designated football game: Selection must win game or entrant is eliminated.
